8:30 Registration/Exhibitors
9:30 KEYNOTE ADDRESS: The Gift of Time: Aging with Lifelong Disabilities
Edward F. Ansello, PhD
Virginia Geriatric Education Center, Virginia Commonwealth University
Growing older is now both commonplace and misunderstood, with frequent references to costs and limitations rather than dividends and opportunities. Growing older with lifelong disabilities is occurring within a society largely unprepared for the aging of the nation. This is a critical point to examine values and influences on policies and practices that limit the meaning of age.

10:30 Break
10:45 Breakout Session I

Basic Track A
AGING 101
Anniliese Stoever, MSW
St. Louis Area Agency on Aging
Learn about the normal, healthy process of aging, the changes that typically occur in our systems as we age, and what changes could be cause for concern in people aging with Developmental Disabilities.

Professional Track B
ASSISTED AUTONOMY IN PRINCIPLE & IN PRACTICE
Edward F. Ansello, PhD
Virginia GEC, Virginia Commonwealth University
In the absence of consistent public policy on and adequate financial commitment to growing older with lifelong developmental disabilities, intersystem coalitions can offer de facto policy and cost-effective practices to face related challenges and opportunities. After testing models of intersystem collaboration, in 10 years of federally supported projects, three key elements mark effective coalitions; there are also keys to starting, proceeding, and continuing these coalitions.

Medical Track C
POLYPHARMACY IN PEOPLE AGING WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES
Milta Little, MD, BS, DO
St. Louis University School of Medicine
More often than not, medications are a necessary part of aging, but too much medication can be dangerous. Explore the potential side effects and dangers of mixing medications or over-medicating.

11:45 Lunch
1:00 Breakout Session II

Basic Track A
LIFE COURSE GUIDE: AGING WITH DD
Judy Wanko, Family Support Coordinator
Department of Mental Health, State of Missouri
We have heard from many individuals/families that they do not know what questions to ask and where to turn for resources. Learn about a tool that can be used across the lifespan.

Professional Track B
AGING WITH DEVELOPMENTAL DISABILITIES BEHIND BARS
Lee TerHark, MSW, LCSW
Alton Mental Health Center
Explore this session about people who are aged and those with Developmental Disabilities involved in the Criminal Courts in Illinois, “Unfit to Stand Trial and Not Guilty by Reason of Insanity.”

Medical Track C
OBSERVATION SKILLS CAN SAVE A LIFE
Janet Whitworth, DNP, RN, FNP-BC
Goldfarb School of Nursing, Barnes-Jewish College
Identifying when someone needs professional care is the linchpin to staying healthy as we age. Use your senses to identify changes that may require medical attention for those in your care.
